Dear Members

Data sharing

Many of you will have heard of the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) which came in to force on 25th May 2018.

Our Society holds information on its members primarily to maintain communications relating to the Society's activities, elections, events, and operations and any other communication that is considered to be in the interests of our members and related to the Society and its activities. Without the contact details which you have supplied to us, we cannot continue to do business with you. If, at any time in the future, you decide to cancel your membership you may rest assured that your details will be deleted and shredded.

However, we are now required to request your explicit consent to share your information and I would be grateful if you could read and return the form on the reverse of this page. The information you provide in this form will be used solely for dealing with you as a member of the Beef Shorthorn Cattle Society (BSCS). BSCS has a Data Privacy Policy which can be found on the website. Your data will be stored and used in accordance with this policy.

If you have any questions, please give me a call on 07399 452015 or email jobailey@beefshorthorn.org

Yours sincerely

Joanna Bailey
